

From The Desk Of
CALVIN HREZIK

Dear reader,

Consider this less a résumé than an invitation into my maximalist world. Equal parts art and autobiography, my work draws on years in top design studios and a lifelong love for collecting pieces with stories of their own - mixing patterns and styles into spaces with narrative, fantasy, and function.

Work Experience:

Darren Henault Interiors & Tent Furniture Showroom, New York 03/2024 - 08/2025
Interior Designer and Creative Operations Director

- Spearheaded the launch of Tent's Manhattan furniture showroom, leading merchandising, PR collaborations, and day-to-day operations.
- Acted as the principal's right hand - managing client meetings, design presentations, and office operations, including hiring employees and management
- Oversaw FF&E sourcing and vendor/contractor coordination, ensuring on-time and on-budget project delivery.
- Provided strategic input on design and business decisions, strengthening both creative outcomes and operational efficiency.

Markham Roberts, New York 03/2021 - 04/2023
Interior Designer

- Promoted within 3 months by taking on leadership of complex installations.
- Independently managed a Palm Beach pied-à-terre project - blending heirlooms with antiques and custom sourcing to deliver a layered, client-reflected design.
- Coordinated multiple high-end projects in NYC, the Hamptons, and Palm Beach, balancing design development, procurement, and client-facing communication.

Inside Elements, New York 10/2020 - 03/2022
Interior Design Assistant

- Collaborated with the principal to establish new studio processes and workflows.
- Assisted in developing design schemes for a Sag Harbor new-build, including themed guest suites inspired by global travel.

One Kings Lane, New York 10/2018 - 04/2020
Lead Visual Merchandiser

- Opened and merchandised flagship stores in NYC, Boston, and Southampton, balancing corporate direction with local market functionality.

Miles Redd, New York 06/2018 - 10/2018
Interior Design Intern

- Supported design team with fabric sourcing, presentation boards, and administrative tasks such as managing invoicing, estimates, and purchase orders.
